

Teacher Resource Center

Saturday Teacher Training at TAA

Session One: (10 am – 12pm)

Shaping the Way we Teach English

Leslie Opp-Beckman will introduce the new teacher training video from the Office of English Language Programs of the U.S. Department of State. This video highlights the foundations of English Language Teaching, focus on the learner and teacher development. During this session Leslie will review the foundations of ELT as well as discuss how to extend teaching through classroom management, learning strategies and alternative assessment.

Session Two: (1 pm – 3 pm)

Using Computers and Technology in the Classroom

Leslie will show participants how to use computers with teaching even if there aren't computers in the classroom. She will discuss various websites that are great sources of ideas for teachers as well as how to use things like Yahoo Groups while teaching.

Presented by Leslie Opp-Beckman

Leslie Opp-Beckman is on faculty at the University of Oregon's Linguistics Department and American English Institute. She develops and teaches a combination of face-to-face and online distance education courses. She has published, lectured and conducted professional training workshops in the area of Computer Assisted Language Learning (CALL) for English language educators extensively across the United States and internationally.
